Grand First Principal's Quarterly Message

"Masonic Words into Actions: Let's Be True Companions"

Companions, as summer slowly reminds us that it will soon be leaving and our discussions turn to fall, it is time for us to return to our Chapter duties and the benefits of our fraternity.

My theme for the year is "Masonic Words into Actions: Let's Be True Companions" and I hope that every Companion, officer and Chapter returns with a sense of determination to take our cherished masonic words and put them into action. Those cherished words that we as masons have as guiding principles during our masonic journey. Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth.

I encourage our Chapter members to continue sharing Chapter summons, details and information of events they are planning to allow others an opportunity to visit. Companions, "cooperation and communication have never been more important". "Visitation has never been more important".

I was fortunate to attend the field day that was hosted by Unity Chapter No. 10 in Swift Current August 15th with the assistance of Estavan Chapter No. 8 to conduct a joint degree to welcome two new Royal Arch Masons to our membership. A great deal of work and reorganizing that even mother nature could not deter finally paid off and all those involved should be commended for their persistence, determination and skilled work.

As we are returning to labour, I look forward to my official visits and hope to reach out shortly to organize my year. I would like to express my appreciation and gratitude to all the grand line officers, past and present, for being a part of my year.

Faternally,

M. Ex. Comp. Ross Young
